Invitation to Participate

Savannah Way Limited, the CRC for Tropical Savanna Management and Savannah Guides invite you to be a part of the inaugural 2009 Savannah Symposium.

This vital conference and optional field workshop will look at future opportunities for northern Australia. How can we do sustainable business in the bush together?

The 2009 Savannah Symposium will bring together many key stakeholders:

- Local Councils
- CRC & other Researchers
- Indigenous Organisations
- Savannah Way Limited
- Conservation Organisations
- Community Leaders
- Territory & State Government Departments
- Savannah Guides
- Australian Government
- Specialist Consultants
- Pastoralists
- State and Regional Tourism Organisations
- National Parks
- Regional Development Organisations
- Small businesses and Remote Area Services

The 2009 Savannah Symposium includes two integrated sections. Join us for either or both:

17-19 November: Conference at Charles Darwin University

Learn about new ideas and programs, successful case studies and developments in three streams – Sustainable Communities, Conservation Business, and Ecotourism. Presenters from business, government agencies and diverse organisations will discuss regional opportunities.

20-21 November: Field Workshops in Kakadu National Park and Arnhem Land

Experience our streams in practice through a behind the scenes look at the iconic Kakadu National Park and Injalak (Arnhem Land). Meet Traditional Owners and see how tourism businesses interact with culture. Visit ancient rock art, Cooinda, Kakadu Culture Camp, Ranger Uranium Mine and Yellow Water.
